Commentary

As of October 2026, the CAL Benefit Fixed Income Unit Trust delivered a year-to-date (YTD) return of 8.14%, underperforming its benchmark by 96 basis points. The fund's performance was primarily driven by its shorter duration stance relative to the benchmark. Going forward, the Trust will continue to preserve a strong liquidity position through strategic allocations to treasury bills and bank securities. In pursuit of higher returns and reduced geographic concentration risk, the Trust is gradually increasing its exposure to local corporate debt securities while also exploring opportunities in global fixed income markets. Overall, the investment strategy remains centred on optimising returns and enhancing diversification, positioning the portfolio to effectively support unitholders' medium- to long-term objectives.
