Commentary

The CAL Advantage Balanced Unit Trust returned 3.77% in July 2025, lifting its year-to-date (YTD) performance to 18.11%. While slightly trailing its benchmark, the Trust has delivered competitive results across various periods, supported by strong contributions from both equity and fixed income holdings. During the month, the Trust tactically increased exposure to bank securities offering relatively higher yields, as Treasury Bill rates continued to decline. The lower yield environment also enhanced valuations of existing Treasury Bill positions. Looking ahead, equity investments will be pursued selectively, given elevated valuations across much of the investable universe. On the fixed income side, the strategy will focus on Bank and Corporate Debt Securities to sustain attractive returns in a subdued yield environment. The Trust remains anchored on diversification and active management, positioning it to navigate evolving market conditions and deliver consistent medium to long-term value for unitholders.
